

In the initial 2014 Annual Combined statement filing, the positions of the phone number and e-mail address in the P2014CJURAT4 table were reversed. This caused e-mail addresses to load as phone numbers and vice versa within the NAIC Financial Data Repository database. E-mail addresses were truncated at 20 characters, which rendered the information received unusable.