Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On April 24, 2019, the Nasdaq Hearings Panel notified Jensyn Acquisition Corp. (the “Company”) that it had granted the Company’s request to remain listed on the Nasdaq Stock Market provided that the Company completes a business combination on or before June 20, 2019 and demonstrates to the Panel and Nasdaq Staff that the post-business combination entity meets all of the requirements for continued listing.

As previously announced on March 4, 2019, the Company received written notice that its securities were being removed from listing and registration on the Nasdaq Stock Market as a result of the Company not having completed a business combination within 36 months of its initial public offering. The Company appealed the listing determination, delisting was stayed and a hearing before the Nasdaq Hearing Panel took place on April 11, 2019.

The Company, as previously announced, has entered into a definitive agreement with respect to a proposed business combination with Peck Electric Co.

Information Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

The Company makes forward-looking statements in this report within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to expectations or forecasts for future events. These statements may be preceded by, followed by or include the words “may,” “might,” “will,” “will likely result,” “should,” “estimate,” “plan,” “project,” “forecast,” “intend,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “seek,” “continue,” “target” or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are based on information available to us as of the date of this report, and involve substantial risks and uncertainties. Actual results may vary materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements herein due to a variety of factors, including the Company’s ability to submit a plan of compliance satisfactory to Nasdaq; and other risks and uncertainties set forth in the Company’s reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company does not undertake any obligation to update forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or developments or otherwise.
