EXHIBIT 99.1

Argo Group Shareholders Elect All Five Class III Directors at 2019 Annual Meeting

Company Shareholders Overwhelmingly Support Argo and its Board of Directors

Voce's Nominees and Proposals Lacked Shareholder Support Prior to its Withdrawal

Argo Reaffirms its Commitment to Shareholder Engagement

HAMILTON, Bermuda – May 24, 2019 – Argo Group International Holdings, Ltd. (NYSE: ARGO) (“Argo” or the “Company”), an international underwriter of specialty insurance and reinsurance products in the property and casualty market, announced today that, based on a preliminary count provided by its proxy solicitor, shareholders have voted to elect all five of its Class III Directors to the Argo Board.

“We appreciate the strong support from our shareholders,” said Gary Woods, Chairman of the Board. “The Board and management value the conversations we have had with our shareholders in recent months regarding our strategy, governance, and plans for continuing to create shareholder value. We deeply value their perspectives, and we plan to maintain an active and productive dialogue with our shareholders as we continue to integrate their feedback and execute on our strategy.”

Argo also disclosed that, prior to Voce’s announced withdrawal days before the Company’s Annual General Meeting, Voce’s nominees and proposals had received limited shareholder support. As of the evening of May 20, Sedgwick Browne, Argo’s Class III director targeted for removal by Voce, had received support from shareholders holding over 80% of the submitted proxies. Additionally, almost 80% of the submitted proxies had voted against the removal of Argo’s Chairman, Gary Woods and more than 80% of the submitted proxies had voted against the removal of the other directors targeted by Voce.

Additionally, based on preliminary votes, the non-binding advisory resolution on executive compensation received 50.53% of the votes in favor, with 49.47% against.

“We will work with our shareholders to fully understand the concerns that influenced the vote regarding the compensation of our executive officers and are committed to taking the necessary actions to address those concerns,” said Mr. Woods. “Our Board will carefully consider these results, as well as future shareholder input, in determining executive compensation going forward. We thank our shareholders for their continued feedback and support.”

Final voting tallies from this year’s annual meeting are subject to certification by the Company’s inspector of elections and will be included in the Company’s report to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission once certified.
