JEFFERIES TO HOST 12TH ANNUAL GLOBAL INDUSTRIALS CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, August 5, 2016 – Jefferies today announced that it will host its 12th annual Global Industrials conference August 9-11, 2016 in New York.

The conference is comprised of company presentations, fireside chats, keynote speakers and investor meetings, and will feature an extensive range of companies across the Aerospace/Defense, Automotive/Transportation, Building Products/Materials, Chemicals, Diversified Industrials, Emerging/Sustainable Technologies, Engineering/Construction, Machinery, Mining, Paper/Packing and Steel/Metals/Mining sectors.

This comprehensive gathering of key industry participants, including more than 200 presenting companies and more than 1,500 institutional investors, will address significant trends and developments within the global Industrials sector.

Chris Kanoff, Global Head of Industrials Investment Banking at Jefferies, noted, “Our conference, which is one of the largest global industry events dedicated to Industrials, and provides institutional investors and corporate management teams with a venue to interact and identify new opportunities. This conference confirms Jefferies’ commitment to this important sector and to creating valuable opportunities for our clients.”
