JEFFERIES TO HOST 2017 CONSUMER CONFERENCE JUNE 20-21 IN NANTUCKET

NEW YORK, June 19, 2017 – Jefferies today announced that it will host its 2017 Consumer Conference June 20-21 in Nantucket, MA.

The conference will feature an extensive range of global public and private companies across the Broadline/Hardline, Consumer Finance, Consumer Products & Personal Care, Entertainment & Leisure, Food & Drug Retail, Food & Beverage, Luxury, REITS, Restaurants & Food Service, and Specialty Retail sectors.

This two-day gathering of key industry participants, including nearly 100 presenting companies and 500 institutional investors, will address significant trends and developments within the global Consumer sector. The conference is comprised of company presentations, keynotes and thematic panels.

Jim Walsh, Chairman of Consumer and Retail Investment Banking at Jefferies, noted, “We are excited to once again host industry-leading companies and key institutional investors at our unique global consumer conference. This annual event highlights Jefferies’ commitment to the dynamic sector and provides companies and investors with a differentiated venue to discuss and share investment trends, insights and ideas.”

As part of the firm’s commitment to the consumer sector, Jefferies has over 25 Consumer-focused investment bankers in New York, Charlotte, San Francisco and London. Additionally, Jefferies has 16 senior consumer equity research analysts covering approximately 260 consumer companies globally.
