JEFFERIES TO HOST 2013 GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY, MEDIA AND TELECOM CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, April 22, 2013 – Jefferies today announced that it will hold its industry-leading Global Technology, Media and Telecom Conference in New York City from May 7-9. This global gathering of institutional investors, private equity investors, VCs and senior executives is comprised of company presentations, keynote speeches and thematic panels. The event will address trends and developments within the TMT sectors, as well as near- and long-term investment opportunities.

Phil Berkowitz and Paul Crisci, Co-Heads of Jefferies' U.S. Technology Investment Banking Group, jointly commented, "With more than 200 companies confirmed to present this year, our conference provides a comprehensive forum for investors to connect with both established and evolving TMT companies, and provides an opportunity for companies to interact with their strategic partners and investors. This year's conference is particularly relevant given recent developments in the mobile sector and growing concerns over the security space."

Prem Parameswaran, Global Head of Media & Telecom Investment Banking and Dominic Lester, Head of European TMT and Joint Head of European Investment Banking, also commented, "This year's event will be truly global in nature, with companies from the Americas, Europe and Asia participating. The conference further demonstrates Jefferies' continued commitment to these important industries, and to creating opportunities for our global institutional and corporate clients."

For more information about the conference, please contact your Jefferies representative or email tmtconference@jefferies.com. You must be pre-registered in order to attend the conference.
