FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JEFFERIES TO HOST 2014 GLOBAL TECHNOLOGY MEDIA AND TELECOM CONFERENCE IN MIAMI

President Bill Clinton to Deliver Keynote Address

NEW YORK and MIAMI, May 1, 2014 – Jefferies today announced that it will host its 2014 Global Technology, Media and Telecom Conference May 6-8 in Miami. President Bill Clinton, Founder of the Clinton Foundation and 42nd President of the United States, will deliver the keynote address.

The three day event will be comprised of company presentations from leading public and private global TMT companies as well as breakout sessions, thematic keynote presentations and 1X1 and small group investor meetings. The global gathering of institutional investors, private equity investors, venture capitalist and senior corporate executives will address trends and developments within the TMT sectors, as well as near- and long-term investment opportunities.

In a joint statement by our Global Heads of Technology and of Media and Telecom, Phil Berkowitz, Paul Crisci, Dominic Lester and Prem Parameswaran commented, “Jefferies’ Global TMT Conference provides a critical forum for companies worldwide to interact with strategic partners and investors, as well as an opportunity for investors to gain insight into thematic trends and strategies facing the industry. The conference demonstrates Jefferies’ continued commitment to these important industries, and to creating opportunities for our global corporate and institutional clients. Key issues to be addressed at the conference include the topics of content versus distribution, new technological trends and strategic consolidation and who will the ultimate winners be?”
