

JEFFERIES TO HOST 2016 LONDON HEALTHCARE CONFERENCE

LONDON, 18 October 2016 – Jefferies today announced that it will host its 2016 London Healthcare Conference on 16-17 November in London, United Kingdom. The two-day event will feature leading public and private companies in the areas of pharmaceuticals, biotechnology, generics, consumer health, animal health, medical technology and healthcare services, from the United States, Europe, Middle East & Africa, Latin America, Russia, India, Israel, China, and Japan.

Jon Santemma, Global Head of Healthcare Investment Banking at Jefferies, commented, “Now in its seventh year, the Jefferies London Healthcare Conference is both the premier conference and the largest conference dedicated to healthcare in Europe. It further confirms Jefferies’ commitment to healthcare and serves as the leading European healthcare forum for healthcare executives and institutional clients to identify new strategic and investment opportunities.”

Last year’s event hosted over 300 participating companies, 1,200 attendees, and 3,700 business-to-business and investor meetings.
