JEFFERIES TO HOST GLOBAL INDUSTRIALS CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, August 1, 2018 – Jefferies today announced that it will host its 14th Annual Global Industrials Conference August 7-9 in New York City.

The conference will feature an extensive range of companies across the Aviation, Aerospace & Defense, Automotive Suppliers and Auto Aftermarket, Business Services, Building Products, Capital Goods, Chemicals, Distribution, Industrial Services, Industrial Technology, Packaging and Metals & Mining sectors.

This comprehensive gathering of key industry participants, including more than 200 participating companies and nearly 1,500 institutional investors, will address significant trends and developments within the global industrials sector. The event is comprised of company presentations, keynote speakers and thematic panel discussions. Company management teams and institutional investors will also have the opportunity to participate in 1x1 and small group meetings.

Dan DiMicco, Chairman Emeritus, Nucor Corporation will be the keynote speaker on Wednesday, August 8, discussing U.S. Trade Policy and Implications for Domestic Manufacturing.

As part of the firm's commitment to the Industrials sector, Jefferies has approximately 100 industrials-focused investment bankers in New York, Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Houston, London, Los Angeles, Toronto and Washington D.C. Additionally, Jefferies has 26 senior equity research analysts covering 450 industrials companies globally.
